Mr. Fawcett,

The City of Escondido is in receipt of your public records requests received in the City Clerk's office on July 28, 2008. Records related to agreements between the City of Escondido and the Escondido Union High School District related to redevelopment funding contributions from the City in 1984 and 1991 are being requested. The City has completed it's research and analysis and found no responsive records for your request.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss your request, please feel free to contact me. If you can offer any more clues or detail concerning the records you are looking for I will be happy to search further. This closes your public records request received July 28, 2008.

Sincerely,
